

Bypass Kit

BK Series Flushing Bypass Kit is design to:

- Protect coils, control valves, balancing valves and strainers during forward and reverse flushing, service work and routine maintenance.
- Reduces service time by isolating terminal unit strainers during system flushing.
- Save on system commissioning time.
- Allow for continuous system flow during terminal unit service.
- Save on installation time with flexible components and factory assembled kits.
- Meets and exceeds flushing bypass specification.